

Sofia South Ring Mall is a joint investment of two of the biggest Greek companies, Danaos Group through their Danaos Development entity and Furlis Group the IKEA franchise owner for the SEE. The complete plan for the development of this project includes the realization of a residential area in the same district.

Sofia South Ring Mall is a Shopping and Entertainment Centre at the foot step of Vitosha mountain near Sofia.

IPS Bulgaria began its mission with the start of the tenant's fit-out activities. Meaning the coordination of the tenants and fit-out coordination between the responsible parties.

The mission has now been extended with PM functions such as the procurement of new contractors for the shops and permitting
